Meetings /Studies

Book Study

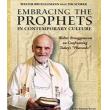

Lois Neves is leading a book study on the book "Inspired" by Rachel Held Evans. This book study will be held on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. The first meeting was Wednesday, January 9th. Please feel free to join the book study at any time. Books can be purchased on Amazon or by contacting the church office.

Embracing the Prophets in Contemporary Culture

by Walter Brueggemann

This six-session Video/Discussion Class will begin on Sunday morning, March 3, during the Sunday School hour at 9:00 AM in the library. Kim O'Brien will be leading this class.

In a series of six class sessions, Walter Brueggemann, arguably America's leading Old Testament scholar and theologian, will take you on a wild ride through the poetic prophecy of the Hebrew Scriptures. He will identify cultural contexts, putting a framework to Israel's history, and most significantly – and at times challengingly! – draw connections between Israel's sociological, economic and spiritual status and that of America today.

Created in 2011, this series will lead you through questions like:

- What was the message of these remarkable poet-prophets in their own time and place?
- What is their message for us today?
- Who are today's prophetic voices?
- How has the contemporary church been co-opted by culture?
- What steps can we take to reclaim the prophetic message of distributive justice, nonviolence, loss and hope?
- And, what is your role in bringing God's perspective to today's society?

Each session begins with a 10-15 minute video presentation by Walter Brueggemann, followed by filmed interaction with a diverse small group. Then, Kim O'Brien will lead you through a discussion of what you have learned.

Please consider signing up to participate in this very meaningful and enriching class experience as you go deeper in your faith journey. Add your name to the class sign-up sheet in the narthex so we are sure to have enough workbooks for everyone.

Congregational Art Project

CONGREGATIONAL ART PROJECT – Local artist and art instructor, Elizabeth Wylegala, will be working with us this year to create and construct a congregational art project. EVERYONE, people of all ages, will be able to participate in creating this work of art. Elizabeth will join us, following worship, on the Sundays of March 24, and April 28 as we begin work on this artistic venture. We will be creating something that shows how each of you live your faith in daily life. To prepare for this, please be thinking about the ways in which each of you live the gospel Good News as you go about your daily life within the context of the greater community. Come ready to share that information as we create a piece of art that will eventually hang in the entrance area of our facility.

Ways you can help!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Covenantal Restoration: A 12 session film series on faith and race Faith Lutheran Church's RIC Team and St. Paul's Lutheran Church join forces to learn about and address issues of race within our culture.

Racism and oppression have a long and painful past and present, it is an open, aching human wound that reflects a fracture in our relationship with God. Understanding how it was promoted and is still alive and acting out in the construct of our beliefs and systems and structures is the beginning of caring for this wound.

In this series on faith and race we pray God would bring you hope, renew your mind, enliven your spirit, and gift you with the virtues of the Divine's own heart. May God strengthen your stand, inspire your movement towards God's dream for humanity, and increase Kingdom square footage with each step you make in Love.

This 12 session film series continues to be offered on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday throughout the coming year. Beginning at 7:30 on the 2nd Tuesday evening of each month, a film will be shown at St. Paul's, and on the 4th Tuesday evening of each month, another film will be shown at Faith Lutheran.
